Domestic Violence Assessment

Referring agents: Probation officers, court officials, human service agencies and professionals seeking guidance and direction for domestic abuse programming.

The Domestic Violence Assessment will evaluate male and female adults accused, or convicted, of domestic violence. Our experienced assessor will administer the risk assessment questionnaire in person to referred clientele. The assessment will evaluate an offender's predisposition for violence, as well as scoring for truthfulness, substance (alcohol and other drugs) abuse, controlling tendencies, and stress management skills. Criminal records and prior domestic violence incidents will be considered as part of the scoring.
