

Women's Domestic Abuse Awareness Program

The Women's Domestic Abuse Awareness Program provides information, counseling and guidance to women in order to understand their past abusive behavior and control their future behavior. The program examines physical violence and focuses on the devastating effects of emotional and sexual abuse in intimate relationships. Victims issues are also addressed. A cognitive behavioral approach is utilized with regard to recognition of escalating behaviors and developing a personal control plan.

The program is designed for court mandated probationers and voluntary clients interested in the program.
